ABOUT THE EVENT

BC Talks' So You Think You Can Speak: An Impromptu Showdown is the 7th annual college-wide speech contest. Impromptu speaking, also known as "thinking on your feet" or "speaking off-the-cuff," is the delivery of a speech without much or any time to prepare. To do well, a contestant must discuss the topic appropriately, develop an organized speech, as well as deliver the speech with confidence and within a specific time limit.

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be an enrolled Broward College student (full or part-time) for Spring 2024
- Must submit online contest entry form by Monday, April 1, 2024 before 12:00 p.m. (noon).
- Must be committed to being physically present to compete during the scheduled competition on April 9.

SPEECH GUIDELINES

Contestants will be challenged on 3 different levels as contestants are eliminated at the first two levels by the votes of the viewers. BC Talks judges will make final decision on the top three winners of the contest after Level 3.

Level 1: A Picture Is Worth A Thousand Words

Each contestant will be shown a different picture. From the picture, each contestant must draw a moral from the picture and present an impromptu speech about the moral of the image.

Level 2: It's Storytime

Each contestant will receive a different story prompt. Based on the story prompt, each contestant must continue the story from where the prompt left off and complete the story.

Level 3: Speak Your Mind on Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Each contestant will respond to an artificial intelligence topic from a bag of topics randomly selected by the host. Each contestant will have a choice from two topics. Contestants will provide a perspective on the topics, indicating a stance (for, against, or neutral), knowledge, and experience related to the topic.

- Mode: Impromptu
